Praise be to Allah and Peace be upon His Messenger, Mohammed

Education is key for personal development, and it provides a wealth of opportunities in life. The commitment and efforts we put into education are some of the most fundamental investments we can make towards securing the future wellbeing of Oman and its citizens.

Our education system has been the bedrock of our development. It has provided this generation and those before it with the skills and knowledge that have driven the country's growth and, with it, our prosperity. But to meet our high aspirations as expressed in Oman's Vision 2040 amidst an increasingly competitive global environment, we cannot stand still.

To compete with the best in the world, our education system must develop young Omanis who are knowledgeable, think critically and creatively, have leadership skills and are able to communicate effectively in English with the rest of the world. Just as importantly, our students must be instilled with values, ethics and a sense of citizenship that will empower them to make the right choices for themselves, their families and the country.

Given Oman's historical and geographical profile, mastering English as a second language is an absolute necessity for all our students. It is the language of international communication and is also the main language for studying other subjects all over the world. Therefore, the Ministry took the decision to adopt and customise an international series called 'Team Together' that is benchmarked to the Global Scale of English (GSE) and the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), both of which are internationally recognised standards for describing language ability.

This series is based on the most cutting-edge research on teaching and learning. It will embed and develop Future Skills such as critical and creative thinking, as well as encourage holistic, well-rounded personal growth. This series will prepare our children to meet the challenges of a pluralistic society that welcomes diversity, a knowledge-based job market that is constantly evolving, and economic globalisation.

Finally, I hope that you find this book useful and enjoyable, and use it in your everyday lives, as this will enable us all to contribute to the success of our beloved country – the Sultanate of Oman – as led by the inspiration and wisdom of His Majesty, Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you every success in life.

Dr. Madiha bint Ahmed Al-Shaibani

Minister of Education

Sultanate of Oman

Dear children,

We are very excited to help you continue your learning journey with English!

Your Semester 2 books are a Class Book as well as an Activity Book. Remember to look after your books and to bring them to your class every day.

All of your books have lots of fun activities to help you to learn English. Your Class Book has stories, songs, projects and games. Your Activity Book has lots of fun tasks to do in class.

Have a really interesting semester and we look forward to writing to you again next year!

Ball games around the world

What ball games do you know? Do you play with a bat? Do you play with your hands or feet?

Baseball

Baseball is a very popular game in the USA and in Japan. You play baseball with a bat and a ball. You must hit the ball, then you run quickly around the diamond.

diamond

bat

Cricket

Cricket is very popular in the UK, Australia, New Zealand, India and Pakistan. You play cricket with a bat and a very hard, fast ball. You must stand at a wicket. Then you hit the ball with the bat and run quickly to the other wicket.

Shall we play chess, Malik?

I can't play chess. Sorry.
But I like going fishing.
Can we go fishing?

Yes, we can! Let's go fishing on my dad's boat.

It's a beautiful day. The boys can see lots of birds, and they can see lots of fish.

Look at the birds, Rashid.
They are getting fish, too!

Yes, they are.
And look at her! She can windsurf well.
I can't windsurf, but I can get a big fish!

It's a sunny afternoon. The boys are hot on the boat. Malik wants his water, but where is his backpack?

I can't find my backpack.
Can you see it, Rashid?

No, I can't. Sorry. Oh,
Malik! I've got a fish!

Get the fish carefully,
Rashid. Don't hurt it.

It's a big fish. Look!
It's brown and orange.

Get it quickly!

It isn't a big fish.
It's my backpack!

The Baby Camel

In Sara's town, there's a new zoo. Last Friday, Sara was in the kitchen with her mum. The zoo was on the TV.

Look, Mum. There's a baby camel at the zoo. Can we go and see it?

Yes, we can! Let's go to the zoo tomorrow.

On Saturday, Sara and her mum were at the busy zoo.
There was a tall giraffe, but there wasn't a baby camel!

Mum, I can't see the baby camel. Where is it?

Don't worry, Sara.
We can find it.

There were three large crocodiles and there were lots of noisy birds at the zoo. But there wasn't a baby camel!

Mum, can you see the baby camel?

No, I can't. But we can find it. Don't worry!

Sara was sad. But then there was a small brown nose in the hedge.
There were two brown eyes and two brown ears in the hedge, too.

It's a beautiful baby camel!

The Old Food Market

Talal, Hazim and Marwa live in a big city. Today, there are modern hotels, busy shopping malls and expensive clothes shops. But the city was different many years ago.

INTERESTING DISCOVERIES IN OMAN

There are many ancient sites in Oman and every year, people make amazing new discoveries about the past. Let's learn about three of them.

SINAW HOARD

In 1979, people found an old blue jar made of clay in Sinaw. Inside the jar were 962 silver coins! The coins were about 1,400 years old and they weren't all from Oman. Some were from Egypt, Spain and other countries. It's the most important discovery of coins in Oman!

Fun fact

Did you know that Bahla Fort and Al Balid are UNESCO World Heritage Sites?

BAIT AL-QUFL

In the mountains of Musandam, the people used stone and clay to make special houses. In the summer, the people travelled to the sea, and used special keys to lock the houses. In this way, their food was safe for when they returned. You can see the Bait al Qufl houses today. Wow!

BAT TOWER

In Bat, near Ibri, you can find some round stone towers. We don't know what people used the towers for, because some of them are more than 5,000 years old! This makes them some of the most important towers in the world.

DIARY OF AN OMANI BOY

Thursday 8 May 1952

My name is Talal and this is my first diary. I'm 11 years old. I've got three sisters and two brothers, but I'm the oldest child. I live on a farm with my mother and father in the countryside.

Friday 9 May 1952

Today was a very exciting day because I visited Muscat for the first time. Muscat is the busiest and most famous city in my country. My father says that boats come here from around the world. When we arrived, there was a big boat there. I listened to all the people talking and shouting. It was so noisy!

There was also a big market. We watched people buy things from the boat. Some of the things were from China! They looked very beautiful. It was great! I can't wait to go back again.

The Deep Well

On Tuesday, the class visited an ancient castle. They learned a lot about the castle in the past. They started to write about it.

An illustration of a class of five children visiting an ancient castle. The castle is built from tan-colored stone blocks and has a large, deep well in the center. A boy in a white thobe and ghutra stands near the well, holding a yellow notepad. A girl in a purple dress and white headscarf stands to the left, holding a blue notepad. Another girl in a purple dress and white headscarf stands to the right, holding a red notepad. A boy in a white thobe and ghutra stands in the background, holding a green notepad. A girl in a purple dress and white headscarf stands in the foreground, holding a pink notepad. A speech bubble from the boy in the foreground says, "Look at this well." A speech bubble from the girl in the background says, "Many years ago, people used clay and stone to build this castle."

Many years ago, people used clay and stone to build this castle.

Look at this well.

Rahaf needed her eraser. It was in her bag. There was also a little comb in her bag. When Rahaf opened her bag, she dropped the comb in the deep well.

Rahaf and Rashid looked in the well.
It was very deep. What was at the bottom of the well?

What should we do?

I can see your comb,
Rahaf! But what is that?
Is it a khanjar?

Rahaf and Rashid worked quickly and carefully.

It was an ancient khanjar! A man dropped it in the well many years ago.

This khanjar is more important than my comb.

We should show it to our teacher. I think it belongs in a museum!

A Special Jar

On Wednesday, the class visited the museum. They arrived at ten o'clock. First, they looked at some traditional jewellery. Then they looked at some ancient jars.

At school on Thursday, the children did a fun activity.
They used clay to make their own little jars.

You've got some clay on your wrist.

Use your fingers and thumbs to push the clay.
It's very soft and wet.

Thank you, Saif!

Nassra and Saif finished their jars first. They didn't need all the clay. There was lots of clay on the table.

Wow, we worked quickly today. What should we do now?

We shouldn't stop now. Look at this clay. I've got an idea!

Nassra and Saif worked together to make a special jar for their teacher. They wanted to thank her for the visit to the museum. The teacher was very happy.

Thank you. You are very kind! I can put my favourite rings in this jar.

Celebrations in the Arab world

Ramadan in Egypt

I learned about Ramadan in Egypt last week. Ramadan is the 9th month of the Hijri year. When the sun goes down, lights come on at all the mosques and there are decorations in many streets. The shops are open late and many people buy pretty lanterns to put in their homes. Ramadan in Egypt is colourful and fun!

Al-Taimeena

In Oman, children celebrate Al-Taimeena when they finish learning the Quran. When my brother finished it last year, he walked around the streets wearing traditional clothes and carrying a lantern. He said a special Du'a and then enjoyed sweets and other food with our friends and family. It was a beautiful day.

Eid Al-Adha

People celebrate Eid Al-Adha on 10th Dhu Al-Hijjah. Last year, I prayed at the mosque with my family on the first day. Then we visited our friends and relatives. They gave me some presents! I like Eid Al-Adha. Which celebration do you like?

Fun fact

On Oman National Day, many buildings have white, red and green lights on them, the colours of the Omani flag.

An unusual birthday party!

Something funny happened at Samira's birthday party at the weekend!
We asked her all about it.

Interviewer: Hi, Samira! Tell us what happened at your party!

Samira: Well, I had my birthday party at my house. There were about 20 friends. First, we played some party games. We all wore funny party hats! Then, Mum and Dad put the food and drink on long tables. My birthday cake was at one end of the table. There was a buffet: I ate a lot of sandwiches, crisps and cupcakes! After that we played more party games in the garden.

Interviewer: OK. It sounds fun! What happened next?

Samira: It was time for the birthday cake, so we went back into the house. But the cake wasn't on the table! Then we saw my cat, Patch. He was asleep under the table, on his back. There was cake all over his face!

Interviewer: Oh no! Did Patch eat the whole cake?

Samira: Yes, he did! It was a great party for him!

At the Funfair

It was 19th July – Max's birthday! Max liked going to the funfair, so he asked Harry to go with him. Harry gave Max a baseball cap for his birthday. Max put his new hat on.

First, the boys went on the go-karts. Then, they went on the rollercoaster. Last, they went on the big wheel. They had lots of fun! But after the big wheel, Max stopped and touched the top of his head.

Max and Harry quickly ran back to the rollercoaster.

Max saw his baseball cap on the bridge. It was very high.
The rollercoaster stopped and a man got the hat for Max.

The Animal Party

My birthday is 25th April. Last year, I had a birthday party. I like animals, so I had an animal party. I gave invitations to all my friends. I asked them to dress up in costumes.

My friends all wore different animal costumes. They dressed up as a black and white zebra, an orange giraffe, a green crocodile and a black and white panda. I was a lion. We had a delicious buffet. We ate big burgers and little animal cakes. We drank chocolate milkshake.

After the buffet, we went in the garden and we played party games. I loved the party games. We had lots of fun. Then I saw something. It was behind the gate.

Is that an elephant?
Is it really an elephant?

I was wrong. It wasn't an elephant at all. It was Dad! It was his amazing elephant costume. He had a large birthday cake for me. My favourite animal was on top of the cake.

Happy birthday!
I made this lion cake for you.

It's very special.
Thank you, Dad!
